Rector's Letter.....

Dear Friends,

It always seems to happen every time in and around the summer exam season. The sun begins to shine!!!

As a student at University my exam scores were always better in the winter than the summer. It was like there was an inverse relationship between better weather and lower grades!

For any young people entering June, trying to keep focused and with more exams ahead, despite how it feels, you are nearly there. You have just a few weeks to go! The Flip Chart tells me that by 19th June there will be a collective sense of relief and freedom for you all. A time that you and your families have been eagerly awaiting is just a few weeks away!

On Sunday 8th June we shall celebrate a moment that the followers of Jesus were eagerly awaiting, but perhaps they weren't entirely sure what they were waiting for. In Acts 1v4&5 we read of Jesus "On one occasion, while he was eating with them, he gave them this command: 'Do not leave Jerusalem, but wait for the gift my Father promised, which you have heard me speak about. For John baptised with water, but in a few days you will be baptised with the Holy Spirit.'" As we read Acts 1, it seems that there was a fair degree of confusion amongst the followers of Jesus but then in v8 we read that Jesus told them before his Ascension "... you will receive power when the Holy Spirit comes on you; and you will be my witnesses in Jerusalem, and in all Judea and Samaria, and to the ends of the earth."

The events of Pentecost (Acts 2) released Jesus' words into reality. Suddenly what Jesus had said, made sense. From Jerusalem, under the power of the Holy Spirit the Church spread and continued to expand, and even today it is growing still.

Just recently a report entitled 'The Quiet Revival' was published by the Bible Society. If you haven't read it, I would encourage you look it up online. The survey behind this report suggests that overall church decline in England and Wales has now reversed and that there are over 2 million more people attending church than there were six years ago. The report also suggests that there has been a particular growth of young men attending church and that that churchgoers are more likely than non-churchgoers to report higher life satisfaction.

It feels like we, the Church, have been waiting for a 'Pentecost moment' for some time. May the Lord's Kingdom Come! May we pray that the effects of a 'Quiet Revival' will be seen in our locality and in our Parish, if not already, soon.

Yours in Christ, Malcolm

FIRST THURSDAY CLUB

For our meeting on 5th June, we are going to have an informal Lunch in the Venue at the Crozier Hall. We would like everyone to be there for 12.30pm in order to be served up almost immediately and to mark the end of our current year. Hope everyone enjoys their summer break and we will return on Thursday 4th September for the start of our new year.

Ann

LADIES WALKING GROUP

We continue to meet each Thursday morning at 10.00am outside of the Crozier Hall to undertake local walks around Armagh, finishing with a visit to a local coffee shop. Occasionally trips to other locations are organised. Walks are suitable for all abilities and new members are very welcome.

1ST TUESDAY HOLY COMMUNION SERVICE

Our monthly Holy Communion Service will take place on Tuesday 3rd June at 11.30am in the Church. Following the service, it is our intention to go to the Charlemont Hotel for a light lunch. Everyone is welcome to join us. During the summer we shall continue our monthly services and lunches will resume in September.

MIDWEEK SERVICES

Wednesday evening services take place in St Mark's at 7.30pm. This service involves a short Bible Study and everyone is invited to join us on any occasion. The midweek services shall conclude for this term on Wednesday 11th June. Our theme for this term is that of the prophet Elijah.

FOOTBALL

Our Monday night football sessions continue. All over 18s are welcome to join our WhatsApp group from which members can receive updates and indicate availability to play. To be added, please contact the Parish Office (37523197 / sec.stmarks@gmail.com).

CHI MI/PILATES

Our Chi Mi & Pilates group continue to meet each Tuesday evening at 7pm in the Crozier Hall. This low impact and low intensity class can help to improve mental wellbeing whilst improving strength, flexibility, joints, balance and co-ordination. Other potential health benefits may include improved heart function and normalised blood pressure. If you are interested and would like to hear more about it, please speak to Arnold Courtney or contact the Church Office.

THE WELL

The Well Café Church shall be meeting on Sunday 8th June at 7pm in The Venue (The Crozier Hall). We'll be gathering together for tea, coffee, treats and a time of informal worship along with a short reflection on Pentecost. If you've never been before why not give it a try! In the summer months The Well will be taking a short break but we shall be back renewed and refreshed for a new term on Sunday 14th September.

CO. ARMAGH MEMORIAL WALL : REMEMBRANCE SERVICE

An annual service of remembrance for those named on the Co. Armagh Memorial Wall is planned to take place in St Mark's on Sunday 22nd June (3pm). This year our Preacher will be Canon Andrew Totten OBE. A very warm invitation is extended to anyone who would like to attend this service and refreshments will be offered in the Crozier hall afterwards. On this occasion there will not be a service in St Mark's at 7pm, however Evening Services will resume as normal on 29th June.

DEEP SEA DIVERS HOLIDAY BIBLE CLUB

We are very much looking forward to this summer's Deep Sea Divers Holiday Bible Club which will take place from August 11th - 15th (10am - 12noon) in the Crozier Hall. Children of Primary School age (September 2025) are invited to join in the fun!

With an 'under the sea' theme, we look forward to lots of fun singing songs, hearing the Bible Stories, enjoying the dramas, taking part in craft activities, playing games and learning together.

If you happen to have any props which are sea or boat themed and potentially useful to us for decorating the Hall, we would be very glad to hear from you! A date for decorating the Hall will be publicised in Pew News. All help is very much welcomed. Please do save the dates and encourage children along to our Holiday Bible Club. It is always a very special week.

MEN'S GROUP

At our last meeting, some men from our Men's Group greatly enjoyed some high octane competition at Gosford Karting. Congratulations to Michael Dickson on coming home with the winner's trophy! Our next outing on Thursday 19th June will be a much more slower paced experience but hopefully involving plenty of laughs together as we venture to Annaginny Fishery and Farm Park, near Dungannon. Everyone will be very welcome to join us for what will be a very enjoyable experience for beginner or experienced fishermen alike! All equipment and bait are provided and we will aim to meet at Annaginny at 7pm. If anyone would like to travel together, we will need to leave The Crozier Hall by 6.30pm. To book in and for further details, please feel free to contact Malcolm (028 37522970).

NEWCASTLE TRIP & SUMMER MADNESS

Last year, to celebrate the end of school exams and the approaching summer holidays, we enjoyed a really enjoyable evening in Newcastle beginning with games on Murlough Beach, chips / pizza for tea and then the dodgems! A return trip is planned for Tuesday 24th June (from 4pm) and all young people from our Parish, and their friends, are very welcome. More details will be found in Pew News nearer the time.

Summer Madness is happening soon! This is always a brilliant event and will take place from Friday 27th June until Tuesday 1st July in Portglenone. All young people from our Parish, as well as their friends, who are currently of secondary school age are invited to book in. Further details about Summer Madness are available via our Parish Website.

Curate's Corner....

Dear Friends,

I'm sure if you looked in your purse or wallet right now you would find at least two forms of identification. Perhaps it's a driving licence, a student card or bus pass. And then in the filing cabinet at home or the 'safe place' there are probably passports, birth certificates and the likes. These documents prove who we are and they say something about us; if it's a birth certificate it tells us we are a son/daughter, if it's a driving licence it tells someone that we can drive, the point being they each tell a story of who we are. As our life circumstances change so does our identity.

When Caroline informs me that Pinnacles week is fast approaching, I usually start asking God what he wants me to write about and usually he gives me just one word, a topic or a theme and this time I feel compelled to write about identity, I'm not sure why but I pray that the Holy Spirit uses these words in some way.

I have recently been wrestling with my identity as a minister and a mum, and how they both work alongside each other. I've been reading a book by Rev Jules Middleton entitled 'Breaking the Mould: Learning to thrive as a ministry Mum' to help shape my thoughts. In the book she provides the following quote:

"Authenticity is the daily practise of letting go who we think we're supposed to be and embracing who we are"

-Brené Brown (2018)

Identity can seem like a buzz word in society at the moment and it is certainly not a topic that we have the time to consider in a Curate's corner. Nonetheless we all have an identity and although our earthly identity changes with our life circumstances (such as getting married, having a baby, achieving a new qualification and more) our identity in Christ never changes, because he is the same yesterday, today and forever. Our identity in Christ isn't just a concept, it's a reality! It means our purpose in life can be found in Christ Jesus. Our identity is rooted in his unchanging love and promises, not in the fleeting opinions of others or in worldly achievements.

Knowing our identity is in Christ is one thing, but understanding how that practically changes the way we live is another. Here are a few ways that understanding our true identity in Christ can greatly impact the way we live:

We no longer chase after the desires of our flesh but instead seek to glorify God in all areas of life.

1 John 2:15-17

If we do not seek to find identity in Jesus alone then we are seeking it elsewhere. But when we find our identity is in the eternal things of Christ, we won't get lost seeking the attractive but empty things the world offers because Christ gives us a stable and eternal hope in a world of unstable hopelessness.

Continued overleaf ...

We no longer fear the future.

Romans 8:14-15

If we have peace with God, then we have nothing to fear on this earth. Our eternities are secure as adopted daughters and sons of Christ. So, we don't need to fear financial collapse, losing our job, or being ridiculed for our faith. Of course, these things aren't easy or painless, but we can have confidence that our heavenly Father is sovereign over every moment of our lives and will equip us for every single thing He ordains.

3. We have no need to judge or compare ourselves to others when we seek to please Christ alone.

Romans 14:5-8

Judging the decisions that others make can suck the life right out of us and create insecurity due to our desire to please people over God. We can ask Christ for wisdom in this area, be open to hear and discern other people's perspectives without judgment, and walk in confidence that God is the only one we need to honour and please in these decisions.

We often also compare ourselves to the gifts and blessings of others. We are all created with the purpose of glorifying God in the unique ways He has created us. One person is filled with creativity while another glorifies God with a beautiful voice.

We must seek to glorify Christ in our gifts and not get lost in the joy-sucking pursuit of trying to be something God never created us to be. Don't miss out on the blessing of serving Christ where you are with what He has chosen for you.

Understanding our identity Christ will bring us freedom and joy. It will allow us to live authentic lives without fear or comparison of others. If you are wrestling with questions of identity then turn to the word of God, seek his truth about who you are in Christ. Embrace the reality that are chosen, called to glorify God and deeply loved.

Every Blessing, Sarah

REACH MENTORING

The end of this academic year may be in sight, but we are already looking forward to 2025/26. This year, Reach mentors have worked in 46 schools across the ABC Council area and into Dungannon, mentoring over 800 young people experiencing difficult life circumstances.

In an exciting move, led by God, we are pleased to share that we will also be launching our services in the town of Magherafelt from September 2025. It is a privilege and blessing to be able to speak into young lives, to support them in their time of need and to show them God's love through our listening ears and by the message of hope we carry. However, without the support of our valued volunteer mentors, the work we do would simply not be possible. Our volunteers are the multiplying factor in the amount of pupils we are able to support. We are currently accepting applications for volunteers for the next academic year. Anyone interested will find an application form on our website (www.reachmentoring.co.uk) or on our social media pages.
