Rector's Letter....

Dear Friends,

As I write this letter, it is in amidst a time when going back to school is very much on the horizon!

Going back to school takes a fair degree of coordination. Uniforms need to be checked and perhaps updated, stationery might require replenishing, shoes need to be bought or shined, a new bag, water bottle or lunch box may need to be considered. And then there is the return to the routine of getting up in time for the morning drop off or collection by the school bus!

I wonder if children who might be reading this letter are secretly looking forward to the return to school? School holidays are great, but I hope that you aren't dreading the return to school as much as you might claim to be! If you are moving school this September, I pray that you will really enjoy your new school. Just a top tip - check what time school ends. When I moved from Primary to Secondary School, I forgot that I no longer finished at 3pm and on my first day I stood at the school gates wondering where everyone was. My new school involved a new home time of 3.30pm. When I realised my mistake, thankfully my teacher understood!

For many of us, the summer time is a wonderful time to relax and not have the same degree of rushing around, but the autumn brings an opportunity to create a new normality, a pattern to establish for the months ahead and to follow. As you will see from this edition of Pinnacles, September involves the weekly activities of our Parish resuming and we hope there is a range of opportunities for people of all ages to grow in their Christian faith and enjoy time spent together. Perhaps this is a month during which you come along to something that you haven't been to before?

In our Services of Worship, we often sing or say the words of Psalm 95 (Venite) where we are encouraged to be a worshipping people. As the Psalmist bids; "Come let us worship and bow down and kneel before the Lord our maker. For he is the Lord our God; we are his people and the sheep of his pasture."

If you haven't been along to church services for a while, please know that there is the warmest invitation to come at any time. The Refresh Weekend offers the perfect opportunity to create or rekindle our intention to be part of services of worship. Truly, please do come along at any time! We would love for you to join us in worship together!

Yours in Christ,

Malcolm

SPONSOR A SQUARE

As you may know, the path of the churchyard between St Mark's and The Crozier Hall are in need of being replaced. The Select Vestry are very aware of our need to progress this project, but are prevented from doing so for financial reasons. To this end, we have launched a 'Sponsor a Square' initiative whereby anyone who is willing can help by sponsoring a square for the paths to be relaid. Roughly speaking we are seeking sponsors for a square metre of the concrete paths and are suggesting a donation of £100. To Sponsor a Square, all of the necessary information is available from our Parish Website. On the Website you can select which path you would like to sponsor a square for and include an acknowledgement if you would like to do so. To donate to this project you may do so also via our Parish Website. If you would like assistance with Sponsoring a Square, please feel free to contact or visit the Parish Office and Caroline will be very glad to help you. Thank you to everyone who supports our parish financially. All donations for the ministry and well being of our Parish are deeply appreciated.

Curate's Corner...

Hi Everyone!

No doubt you have heard the saying "Let's agree to disagree". Disagreements are a part of life. Whether it's in sport, which coffee shop is the best, parenting or politics we all have disagreements. Even Jesus during his earthly ministry had many disagreements and I am sure we can all recall him turning the tables over in the temple as a result of him disagreeing with the money changers and merchants (Matthew 21:12-13 & Mark 11:15-18).

Perhaps you love a good debate that gets your blood pumping. Or maybe like me you tend to shy away from conflict of any sort and when it does happen you want the ground to swallow you up. Regardless of how you feel about disagreements, they are going to happen. But what if there was a way to disagree well and in a way that honours Christ and reflects the Gospel? There is a way to disagree respectfully. I know it's easy to say, but not so easy to put into practice.

¹⁰" I appeal to you, brothers and sisters, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that all of you agree with one another in what you say and that there be no divisions among you, but that you be perfectly united in mind and thought"

1 Corinthians 1:10 (NIV)

It may seem that arguments are everywhere but it need not destroy our unity. We are called not to allow these things to divide us and tear us down. Rather, we are to "make every effort to keep the unity." We do not have to give up our beliefs and opinions to keep the peace, but we should be willing to treat others with love. Sometimes we can fall into the trap of wanting to win or be right when disputes arise. However, we should not allow our appetite for winning to cause us to sin and act unlovingly towards others, as we are called to love our neighbours as ourselves (Mark 12:31). The fact that someone else does not share our opinions or beliefs does not give us permission to stop loving them or treat them with hostility.

So if you are involved in a disagreement at the moment know that there is a better way to respond, a Christlike way that honours God who is full of grace. If you would like to know more about how to deal with disagreements in life then please take a look at "The Well Café Church" section of Pinnacles.

Every Blessing,

Sarah

Visit from Reach Mentoring

THE WELL

As alluded to in Curate's Corner during the next couple of sessions of The Well we will be focusing on the art of disagreeing. As disciples of Jesus, we often wonder, "What would Jesus do?" It helps, when we're trying to discern what Jesus would do, to look at what Jesus did do. If you would like to know more about how we disagree in a faithful and Christlike way then you are welcome to come along to The Well Café Church. Over the next couple of sessions we shall be looking at how we change our culture of disagreement, one difficult conversation, at a time and learning about the art of disagreeing.

After having a short break over the summer to give rest to volunteers and reinvigorate ideas, we shall be back on Sunday 14th September at 7pm in The Venue (The Crozier Hall). We shall be kicking off with some pizza followed by a time of worship and teaching. Everyone is welcome to attend The Well, whether you are full of faith, have a little faith or just want to discover more please spread the word and come along!

During the week beginning August 11th, weekday mornings in the Crozier Hall were action packed! With an 'under the sea' theme Holiday Bible Club, we very much enjoyed songs, Bible stories, drama, games, crafts and a memory verse. It really was a fabulous week and we had so much to be thankful for. A special thank you is offered to Hannah Irvine and her team of leaders, as well as everyone who encouraged children to come along and take part. Holiday Bible Club is always a wonderful week of praise to God and learning of him and leads us nicely into a new term of activity in our Parish. For your diaries - next year's Holiday Bible Club is scheduled for 10th – 15th August 2026.

A 'Back to School' Prayer.

Dear God, at the start of a new school year, we pray for school principals, teachers and the wider team behind the scenes, as they work through the practical implications of running a school.

Lord give our children a thirst for knowledge, wisdom and understanding. May their hearts be ready to learn this year, at home, school and church. Open their ears, and may they crave for knowledge and seek it out.

In Jesus' name, we pray. Amen

DIOCESAN ROMANIA TEAM

On Saturday 2nd August, six members of our Parish joined six members of other churches from our Diocese to travel to Romania and assist with building houses with Habitat for Humanity. The team worked together with immense effect and took part in securing sheeting for floors and walls, putting up plasterboard, plastering external walls, inserting window frame insulation and more! The building that the team worked on consisted of four two storey houses, each making up a quarter of building, with each having their own external door. Whilst working under the supervision of very patient builders, the team worked alongside members of families who will, in time, move into their new home. The vision of Habitat for Humanity is for “A world where everyone has a decent place to live.” The team were able to visit the highly inadequate apartment where one of the families associated with this project currently live and see how much they will benefit from moving into a home which is much better suited to their needs and will one day be their own. It was a great joy to be involved in a project that will very clearly transform the lives of those who will benefit from this project.
